On Re-Zoning Plea

Big Subdivision Gets OK

ROMULUS—A rezoning petition to permit the construction of a large residential project in Romulus Township has been approved by the Township Board at its Jan. 20 meeting.

The petition, filed by the Forsythe Development Company of Southfield, Mich., had been previously approved by the Romulus Planning Commission, which recommended similar action by the Township Board, reported Joseph Wallis, secretary of the planning commission.

The firm plans the large residential complex on some 80 acres of land, located on the northwest corner of Pennsylvania and Huron River Drive.

The present zoning classification of R-1-A (single family) was changed to R-3-A and C-1 (multiple residential and commercial) to permit the project's construction.

The site plans presented before the planners recently disclosed that the residential complex will consist of both residential units, multiple units and recreational area with adequate off street parking spaces and a commercial area.

Some 436,000 square feet will be used for commercial (Continued on Page 3-A)

Romulus Airs Court Income

ROMULUS—The 1969 court income for Romulus, Mich., reported. The court opened in Van Buren Township Hall in January, 1969. It later was transferred to Romulus (July 8, 1969) when the Hale School facilities were made available.

State statutes setting up the District Court system required that the court be located in Romulus based on population. The court serves the communities of Belleville, Huron, Romulus, Sumpter and Van Buren Townships.

The income received by Romulus represents costs and fines collected by the court on cases originating in Romulus and on cases (Continued on Page 3-A)

Cosmetology Students Now Taking Appointments

ROMULUS—When the month of January seems to have 40 days and a lady has hit a mid-winter slump, what can do more for her spirits than a new hair-do?

Mrs. Althea Eddelman of the Romulus High School Cosmetology Department, says that hair-do is only a phone call away.

The senior cosmetology students under the supervision of the instructor, are now taking appointments from the community for their many beauty services.

Appointments can be made by calling the cosmetology department at 941-3489. Clinic hours are between 8 and 11 a.m.

Mrs. Eddelman stated that there are 12 senior girls who have completed 500 or more hours of training, passed tests and were qualified to take appointments.

Costs for the services are for materials only; Shampoo and Set, $1.75; Styling and cut, $1.25; Permanents, $4. (bleached or tinted hair is $1.50 more); Chemical relaxer, $6; Bleach and toner, shampoo and set, $8.; Facials, $1; Wig Sets, $4.

Patrons may use the south parking lot at the High School 9650 South Wayne Road. The cosmetology department is in rooms 427-429.

Here is an opportunity to get out of the winter doldrums and also give the student beauticians the experience of working with the public.

Romulus Mothers Set Dimes March

ROMULUS—A new mother asks two questions of her doctor following the birth of her baby: "Is it a boy or a girl?" and "Is it all right?"

Her concern for her baby is instinctive and too often the doctor must make a judgment as to how he will answer her latter question, for each year a quarter of a million babies are born with birth defects.

This year's chairman for the March of Dimes Mother's March against birth defects, Mrs. Gloria Chandler, asks that Romulus residents welcome the mothers who will be making residential calls between Jan. 28 and Feb. 2.

Funds from the March of Dimes are used for 101 birth defect treatment centers all over the United States. They also provide an extensive scholarship and training program for therapists, a pre natal health education program as well as support for medical investigators and the Salk Institute of Biological Studies.

Mrs. Chandler and her co-chairman, Mrs. Mary Bossary, announced Romulus area captains according to school districts are: Hayti, Mrs. Shirley Cox; Cory, Mrs. Carol Rodd and Mrs. Cleo Kosick; Merriman, Mrs. Barbara Wilbourn; Romulus Elementary, Mrs. Mary Bossary; Mt. Pleasant, Mrs. Rose Sharkany and Mrs. Glenna Waddell; Beverly, Mrs. Theresa Allen.

Mrs. Chandler reported also that more volunteers are needed and anyone wishing to help with the March may call her at 941-2678.

Panax Eyes Development Of Planned Communities

The Panax Corporation of East Lansing today announced the formation of a new company for the purpose of developing planned communities utilizing modular homes.

The new company plans to assemble and erect one or more new communities of modular homes and will also investigate the feasibility of developing one or more mobile home parks.

The new company will be organized as Unlimited Developments, Inc., and 51% of its stock will be owned by Panax Corporation, which also owns the Associated Newspapers.

Panax President John P. McGoff said other firms associating with Panax in the organization of the new company will be the architectural engineering and planning firm of Alden B. Dow Associates, Inc., of Midland and First Central Mortgage Corp. of Saginaw.

H. C. Allison will be named president of the new firm, in addition to continuing in his present positions of vice president and treasurer of Alden Dow Associates. Mr. Allison was

Building Permit Fees Are Raised

ROMULUS—A recommendation by the Romulus Building Department that fees for building permits and electrical inspection activities be increased to meet prevailing rates of surrounding communities has been approved by the Township Board.

The recommendation, submitted by Joseph B. Gallagher, manager of the building department, proposed increases ranging from two and one-half to three percent to building permit fees and from three and one-half to four percent in electrical inspection.

A schedule of the new fees are printed elsewhere in this newspaper. The increases are effective 30 days after publication.

A Comprehensive Building and Plumbing Code provides for the setting up of fee schedules and enforcement, Gallagher stated.

PROGRESSIVE CLUB GIFT—A check in the amount of $1,316 was presented to the Romulus Community Schools by the Romulus Progressive Club for use in the purchase of special equipment for classes of mentally handicapped children in the Romulus Community School District. Presenting the check is Elmer Johnson, club president. William Jakad, assistant superintendent of schools, accepts the donation for the School District.

Milliken's State of the State message to the Michigan legislature—a recognition of the growing need in this state and across the nation. "We feel the new venture will be an interesting and intriguing challenge," Mr. McGoff said. "We are very fortunate to obtain the services of Mr. Allison, an architect with Alden B. PANAX TO DEVELOP PLANNED COMMUNITIES—Plans for Panax Corporation, owner of Associated Newspapers, Inc. and 16 other daily and weekly newspapers in Michigan, to develop planned communities have been completed with Alden B. Dow Associates, Inc., an engineer and planning firm in Midland, with the forming of Unlimited Developments, Inc. Involved in forming the new company are (from left, seated) H.C. Allison, vice president of the Dow firm; John P. McGoff, president of Panax Corp.; and Michael L. Dow, vice-president and treasurer of Panax; (standing) Ned S. Arbury, chairman of the Panax Board of Directors, and Richard Jones, secretary of Panax.

Up To Home Folks

As election time rolls around again, a new army of candidates and officeholders will be tempted to promise anything to the folks back home in exchange for votes. The fate of the nation will hang on whether the folks back home are clear-headed enough to see the danger in the bait being offered them.

The outspoken head of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, Mr. Jenkin Lloyd Jones, gives a little homey advice to voters on the matter of government spending. He says:

"We can't have it all-not the whole bag, not right now. We've got to learn to wait another year for the new expressway, to put up with the old harbor breakwater for a few years more, not to be too free-handed with increased social security benefits until we're sure that the dollar will stand it and we won't be paid off in potato chips. I suggest that we not only accept and welcome a showdown of federal expenditures...but that we get specific. We will get nowhere as long as we politically reward those public servants who have gone to Washington to loot the public treasury in our behalf. We are going to have to encourage those who have the guts to say 'no' to us..."

It does no good to kick about inflation and then turn around and vote for those who would give the country more of the same medicine that has sent the cost of living through the roof and cut the value of the dollar by more than half.

Letters To The Editor

To the Editor:
Please accept an expression of my thanks on behalf of Jehovah's Witnesses in our area for the response you gave in connection with the Circuit Assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses held last week in Detroit.

The convention was a success in every way, and we feel that your coverage of the event helped to make it so.

The Assembly was not only beneficial to the hundreds of Jehovah's Witnesses who attended, but news of it helped many local persons to realize that in their own Bible is to be found the source of peace in this troubled world, namely, accurate knowledge of their Creator, Jehovah God.

Hayti PTA's Dental Care Program Results Detailed

ROMULUS—For the past six years, the PTA at Hayti Elementary School has sponsored a dental care program through the Wayne County Board of Health.

The program provides dental care to do the children of Hayti School, who wish to participate, at a nominal cost. The PTA finances their program through their weekly hot lunches and their annual fair.

Each year a dental chairman is selected; she organizes and supervises transportation, appointments and chaperones for the children who attend the clinic.

This year's chairman is Mrs. John Geisler. Her six month clinic report is as follows: the contract began on July 8, 1969 and continued through Dec. 19, 1969. Clinic time consisted of two days a month, six hours a day or 72 hours of dental appointments.

During that time 225 appointments were made with one appointment missed. 161 X rays were taken, 336 fillings were made, 16 extractions were performed and 283 other treatments were given (cleaning, fluoride, medications).

Children, grades one through three, are admitted to the program with the signed permission of their parents. They receive treatment until they are 12 years old. Once treatment is completed the children are placed on six month recall until they reach their twelfth year, according to clinic regulation.

Parents are asked to help conduct the program by driving, chaperoning and contributing one dollar for each appointment.

The PTA assumes the balance, roughly half, of the actual cost. However, no child is ever denied care because of the inability of the family to pay.

The program has more benefit than the repair of teeth, according to Mrs. Geisler. The children learn early about the importance of good dental health and their first experiences with a dentist are not unpleasant ones, for they go to the dentist with their classmates and are unafraid.

"This is the most important and lasting thing we as a PTA can give our children," Mrs. Geisler said.

Romulus Township Orders Dog Check

ROMULUS—The Romulus Township Board has ordered a dog survey be undertaken in Romulus.

Police Chief Jacob J. Koch, who will supervise the survey, has been given authority to hire necessary help and to enforce the Dog Ordinance whenever necessary.

Township Treasurer Joseph Wallis reported to his colleagues on the Board, that many people moving into the Township are not adhering to provisions of the township's Dog Ordinance.

Some have neglected to procure licenses for their pets, or have not had them vaccinated. Others have purchased dogs since their arrival and have not complied with the ordinance.

In addition there have been complaints of dogs running at large, or not under the constant observation and control of their owners.

The Board's action calling for a township-wide dog survey was on motion of Trustee Jimmie Raspberry, who was surprised by Trustee Gene Mulberry.

A total of 886 students,

Results of the survey has been presented to the Board of Education, it was learned.

Teacher Workshop Set

"Nature in Winter" is the title of a workshop for teachers to be held at the Nature Centers of Kensington Metropolitan Park near Milford and Stony Creek Metropolitan Park on Saturday, Feb. 7.

"Hours of the workshops done to put property values in the proper perspective and to assure that land speculators in Romulus will be paying their fair share of the tax burden.

When this survey is completed, residential property owners will find that the valuation on their land will increase, but the total taxes which they will pay will remain approximately the same as their taxes for the previous year.

Smith appeared to be further angered by a rumor which has been recently circulating in Romulus, to the effect that certain industries had been given "TAX BREAKS" as an inducement to their locating in Romulus.

"Nothing could be further from the truth", Smith stated angrily, "this kind of statement comes from people who are stupid, ignorant and irresponsible."

The tax records in Romulus Township are public and are available for scrutiny at all times. If any one should still suspect that malpractices have been condoned in Romulus, they are welcome at anytime to check the tax records for themselves.

The only time that anyone, be they a resident or industry, pays less than a full year's taxes, would be on the occasion of their first year's assessment when they actually had only occupied their premises for a fraction of a year. In those cases, fractional taxes are assessed on a pro rata basis.

Smith said he suspected that this kind of accusation comes from some political aspirant, and expects to hear more of these kinds of asinine rumors within the next few months, this being an election year.

During the past five years the Progressive Club has donated approximately ten thousand dollars to the special education programs in the Romulus Community School District.

Otzman Emcees Junior Miss Pageant Eight Years

BELLEVILLE—Appearing for the eighth consecutive year as Master of Ceremonies at the Michigan Junior Miss Pageant held in Pontiac this past weekend (Jan. 23-24) was Gerald Otzman of Lansing.

Otzman is the son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Kuchta Sr., 15280 Haggerty Road.

Former program director of radio station WPON in Pontiac, Otzman was announcer for the broadcast of the event nine years ago. Since then he has been on stage enjoying the whole program at much closer range.

Last January Pontiac's Mayor William H. Taylor presented Otzman with the keys to the city for his years of volunteer service.

Gerald F. Otzman

The toughest part of the emcee's chore in Pontiac is filling the time between the final competition and the selection by the judges of the Michigan Junior Miss title holder.

"I have material, but the selection can take anywhere from five minutes to half an hour," Otzman said. "One year I was nearing the very end of my material and wondering what to do next, when the judges returned in the nick of time."

Otzman may tell a few jokes, but "I'm not a comic. That isn't my job," he says. "I merely introduce the contestants and fill in with various information on the young ladies or the contest to give some continuity to the proceedings."

In 1967 the Michigan Pageant, sponsored by the Pontiac Jaycees, was honored as the best overall state pageant in the United States.

Otzman has been active in speech work since high school, where he won the state Hearts oratorical contest. He is now Administrative Officer of the School of Nursing, Wayne State University.

He and his wife, the former Rosemary Kuchta of Belleville, have three sons.

AAA Condemns Light, Horn Use

The increasingly popular practice of urging motorists to turn on headlights or honk their horns to register support for or disapproval of some project has been condemned by Automobile Club of Michigan in its January edition of Motor News magazine.

"Headlights have a purpose, and so do horns," the magazine's lead editorial states. "But it is not to attract attention and let anyone know how motorists feel about more taxes, no taxes, war, ending the war, Democrats, Republicans, youth, militants, peaceniks, hawks, doves.

"If you respond to a public appeal and turn your headlights on to register your feeling, you may be courting a bumped fender or worse from some cantankerous soul who disagrees. At best, this has nothing to do with driving a car safely."

The editorial concludes by saying, "Let's leave headlights and horns to safety and to driving only. That will help 'Bring 'Em Back Alive!'"

Motor News, Auto Club's official publication is circulated into the homes of 870,000 Michigan members.

For February Bride-Elect

INVITATIONS WERE tagged 'miscellaneous' as they were filled in by the five hostesses who entertained Sunday, January 18, at a shower for bride-to-be Jeanne Domen. Some 65 persons traveled from Temperance, Milan, Detroit, Saline, and surrounding cities to attend the afternoon event at the Moose Lodge, in Belleville.

The honoree's sisters and sisters-in-law, Alberta Samonek, Marilyn Montgomery, Darlene Domen, Dee Domen, and Jeanette Domen, all of Belleville, planned the party. Lorraine Domen of Ypsilanti assisted in the kitchen.

Bingo and a bridal-theme game were the afternoon's diversion with prizes including potted geraniums and plants from the greenhouse of the prospective bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Chudzinski, and ceramics made by the honored guest's mother, Mrs. Olive Domen.

Jeanne was assisted by her fiancé, Ray Chudzinski, as she opened the many items for their future home. Little Marcia Domen played a role in handing the packages to the engaged couple whose wedding will take place February 7 at St. Anthony's Catholic Church.

In keeping with the color scheme of her wedding, Jeanne wore a lavender dress in the same shade her attendants will don for the ceremony. Also carrying out the colors were the little lapel designs the guests wore to determine prize winners - minute wedding bands tied in lavender ribbons with white tulle backing.

A ham and salad buffet rounded out the party.

Katherine Michelle is the name chosen by Mike and Margaret Gabriel, of 22340 Clark Road, Belleville, for their first child, a daughter, born December 22.

Mary Ann Sietz, enroute home from Michigan State to see her uncle and aunt, was held up in Pinckney because of snow but, luckily, the west-coasters were there at the time.

While here they also visited with Frank's mother, Mrs. Mary Lipinski, who has been quite ill and is now a patient at the Westland Convalescent Center. Their son, Ron, came from Detroit to spend some time with them before their return January 21.

THE "FOUR Season Room" at the Model Restaurant in West Branch was the spot reserved last Sunday by the immediate family of Mr. and Mrs. David Dunk for the surprise dinner party observing their golden wedding anniversary.

Present for the happy occasion were their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Oelke, with Bette Gene, Brenda, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pinter and daughter, Lisa Jo, all from Belleville. Another daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Beck, William David, Margaret and friend, Skip Swim, traveled from Romulus.

The couple's only son, David B. Dunk, his wife, and daughter, Carol, made the family picture "almost" complete. The only member missing was Sp/4 Robert David Oelke, who is serving with the U.S. Army at Fort Halabird, Maryland, where he is in Army Intelligence Training. He WAS able to visit his grandparents during the holidays while on a two-week leave.

Shortcuts To Savory Cooking : Rice With Lamb

Shish kebabs, those flaming entrees so beloved by pyromaniacs in expense-account restaurants, came from humble origins. In the beginning, Persian nomads speared chunks of mutton on their swords and cooked the meat over their campfires. The term "shish kebabs" translates as "swordmeat" and any meat, fish, or fowl will do, but lamb has always been the preferred meat for this treatment.

Traditionally, rice pilaf accompanies kebabs and the variations of pilaf are legion. Since the beginning of time, cooks have been devising new ways with this rice dish. Savory Rice is a new branch on the pilaf family tree and uses Minute Rice with onion soup mix for a shortcut route to the Near East style of cooking.

And for elegant eating economically, keep these tips in mind. Next time your supermarket or butcher has a sale on leg of lamb, buy a whole leg. Have the butcher cut it into three portions: the loin end for roasting, center-cut steaks for grilling or barbecue, and the shank portion for cubed meat for shish kebabs. Freeze your choice of two of these portions for another day's feasting.

Baked Herb Pilaf is another modern variation of the ancient dish that's particularly delicious with roast poultry or pork. During the last 20 minutes of roasting, this pilaf can share oven space with the roast. And as for ease of preparation -- well! Rice has it all over potatoes. You never had a peel a grain of rice, did you?

Savory Rice With Lamb Kebabs

- 1¼ cup salad oil
- 2 tablespoons vinegar
- 1 envelope onion soup mix
- 2 cloves garlic, split
- 1 pound boneless lamb, cut in 1-inch cubes
- 2 cups water
- 1 1/3 cups packaged enriched pre-cooked rice
- 1½ cups drained cooked peas
- 2 small tomatoes, cut in wedges

Combine oil, vinegar, 1 tablespoon of the soup mix, and 1 clove garlic in bowl. Add meat and stir to coat all sides. Let stand to marinate at least 3 hours. (If meat is to be marinated more than 3 hours, place in refrigerator.) Then spear meat on skewers and reserve marinade. Broil or grill meat until of desired doneness.

Meanwhile, place reserved marinade in saucepan. Add remaining soup mix, remaining garlic, and water. Bring to a boil. Discard garlic. Stir in rice, peas, and tomatoes. Cover, bring to a boil, and simmer 5 minutes. Fluff with a fork and serve with lamb kebabs. Makes about 5 1/3 cups rice mixture plus kebabs or 4 or 5 servings.

Baked Herb Pilaf

- 1 can (12½ oz.) chicken broth
- 2 cups packaged enriched pre-cooked rice
- 1 teaspoon instant minced onion or onion flakes
- 1 teaspoon chopped parsley or parsley flakes
- 1 teaspoon celery seed or celery flakes
- 1 teaspoon salt
- ¼ teaspoon oregano
- 1 tablespoon butter (optional)

Measure broth and add water to make 2 cups. Combine all ingredients in a shallow 1-quart baking pan or casserole. Cover with aluminum foil. Bake at 350 degrees for 20 minutes, or until liquid is absorbed. Makes about 4 cups or 6 servings.

The smart shopper knows that what she buys can make her meals drab or delicious, tasty or tasteless and most important, within her budget or not!

Today, wise buying is becoming more and more important. Be a better shopper and you will be a better cook. Betty Brownell, home economist for the National Association of Food Chains, suggests 12 ways to save money and still set a better meal before your family. Her dozen ideas save you time and money!

GET THE shopping list habit. Keep paper and pencil handy in the kitchen and write things down as you run out of them. You might even save yourself an extra trip to the store.

PLAN MEALS in advance. Use newspaper ads to give you ideas and tell you what's on sale or special this week. If ground beef is on the list, you might decide to serve spaghetti one night and meat loaf a few nights later. The meat loaf could include leftover vegetables that shouldn't be wasted. Write down your menu plan but change if you find a better buy.

VISIT YOUR favorite supermarket in the morning or early afternoon. The store will be less crowded and you'll be able to take as much time as you need to read labels, look for specials and decide on your family's food. Take your list and your menus.

LOOK FOR the specials that were not in the newspapers. Some supermarkets decide to have an extra "sale" and lucky customers will save money. Change your menu plan right then and there.

BE SURE you've planned

Mrs. Randall Turns 95; Friends Pay Visits

There was a very special birthday to celebrate out in Denton on Sunday, January 18, -- the 95th natal date of Mrs. Luscena Randall. Her family (with the exception of a son in Denver) was on hand to welcome relatives and friends who called throughout the afternoon. Cake and ice cream were served and Mrs. Randall was presented with gifts, cards, flowers, and plants.

Born in the Wayne area on January 16, 1875, the birthday lady has lived in this area all her life and now makes her home on Gilmore Street, Belleville, (in the little community of Denton.) A widow, her husband Auburn passed away in 1940. Their five children are Mrs. Pearl Miller of Ypsilanti; Glenn of Denver, Colorado; Floyd of Boyne City; Mrs. Sybil Gorham of Elk Rapids; and Mrs. Viola Walter of Denton. There are also 12 grandchildren, 15 great-grandchildren, and two great-great grandchildren on the family tree.

ROMULUS--If one hears cries of "Ole" around Cory School, at 35200 Smith Road, and if things begin to have a Latin look it will be due to their pre-occupation with their exciting new project.

Lemon-Aids For Dieters

Thousands on restricted diets have discovered that ReaLemon bottled lemon juice makes an excellent, low-calorie substitute for salt and/or fats. Sprinkled on hot vegetables and salads it brings out their natural good flavor without adding calories. It may be used as a salt substitute on steak and other high protein foods. And, with only 4 calories per tablespoon, bottled lemon juice becomes a refreshing, low-calorie beverage when hot or cold water and artificial sweetener are added.

At their January PTA meeting, it was decided to participate in the Peace Corps' School Self-Help Partnership Program. Their goal is to raise a thousand dollars to help build a school in South America, according to Mrs. Fran Petre, PTA president.

Mrs. Petre explained that the PTA would work with a Peace Corps volunteer from the village chosen to be a "partner". He would organize for the land, labor and 25 percent of the building costs. The first project that is scheduled to raise funds for the new school will be the spring fair. The theme will be South American, said Mrs. Petre. Another activity being planned is a spring music festival, which will also have a Latin motif, she said.

A Peace Corps representative from Guatemala will attend the April meeting to explain more fully and answer questions about the Partnership Program.

Earns M.S. Degree

CLOSE FRIENDS of Bryan Killingbeck, of 11993 Olive Street, Romulus, put their heads together and planned a graduation party in his honor Saturday, January 17. His great-aunt, Mrs. Edah Theisen, also helped with the celebration.

Bryan received his Master of Science degree in the field of biology at Eastern Michigan University Sunday, January 18. He heads the Biology Department and teaches biology and earth science at West Junior High School in Taylor where he has been a staff member since receiving his B.S. degree from E.M.U. in 1964.

Party guests included the Robert Hoeft family, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Van Buhler, Gloria Polzin and son, Bob, Gary Fulton, Daryl Loyer, Bob Machalek, Phil Barr, Tom Meyer, Dawn Bruder, and John Sienko, all of Belleville; the Les Hoeft family of Plymouth; and Jack and Rosemary Loria of Ypsilanti.

Tips On Meal Planning

leftover meat plus rice plus leftover vegetables in a delicious casserole. Food that might have gone to waste can be combined into a family favorite. Often leftover poultry becomes something special when cut up, heated in a cream sauce and served over homemade or "store-bought" biscuits.

SHOP FOR meals planned around the main course. Meat is one of the biggest items in your food budget. If you've time to let a less tender cut of meat cook happily to perfection, you'll save money as these cuts are much less expensive. Often, the time is not as long as you think. Shoulder chops can simmer away in thirty minutes as you prepare the rest of your dinner, while the more expensive loin or rib chops save only 20 minutes and cost a great deal more money.

DO-IT-YOURSELF foods save you money. A package of instant nonfat dry milk plus water gives you milk for drinking and cooking that's less expensive and as nutritious as whole milk. It will whip to a froth, topping a dessert treat for about two cents a cupful. Salad dressings, expensive for large families, can be just as good when made at home with vinegar and oil. Puddings, too, might be made at home during an evening, saving money by passing up prepared puddings.

FLAVORINGS and seasonings can make the difference in your meal. The French, known for their saucers, gained the reputation by topping less expensive cuts of meat with well seasoned sauces — prepared by the lady of the house! Onion, garlic, spices and herbs, used sparingly but wisely, perk up a dish that's otherwise ordinary. Your family deserves a meal that's delicious — even though it might be low cost.

Busy mothers and working wives must adjust their time schedules to their meal planning and cooking. With a little practice, shopping in a supermarket can be an interesting — and money-saving — adventure.

A better shopper becomes a better cook who knows that happiness is a good dinner.

Ski-Doo Team Making Tracks Throughout State

By Pearl Morris
Phone WH 1-1187

The Ski-Doo racing team sponsored by the Huron Sod Farms of Pennsylvania Road is busy these cold, snowy week-ends participating in snowmobile races throughout Northern Michigan and winning themselves many honors.

The past weekend found them at Washington, Michigan, where they won nine trophies. The preceding weekend the team brought home 11 trophies from competition. The Huron Sod Farms are owned by the Zilka, Reinhold families.

James Brower, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Burl Brower of Jeanette Street, Belleville (formerly of Wick Road, Romulus) is now working with the government rehabilitation for the blind in Grand Rapids.

Brower hopes to serve as a missionary among the Indian Natives in South America in the not too distant future. The Senior High Department of the Romulus Calvary Baptist Church set a Christmas offering goal of $200, so they could purchase a battery operated tape recorder for Jim, which would be suitable for jungle use.

As a field trip, the Romulus High School college English class enjoyed an outing to Hilberry Theater at Wayne University in Detroit the past week. They saw "Macbeth", one of the recent classics the class has studied.

Kerry Zilka, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Zilka of Merriman Road, competed in a Ski-Doo race for Juniors at Troy, Michigan, last weekend (Jan. 11). He took first place and also won a case of oil.

On Saturday, Jan. 31, the second 4-H Horse Judging Round-Up, a training meeting for Michigan 4-H adult and teen leaders who train horse judging teams, will be held at the Livestock Judging Pavilion at Michigan State University, East Lansing. The round-up starts at 10 a.m. and continues through 3:30 p.m. There is no limit on the number of leaders and teen-leaders each county can send.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerald Wells and baby are new residents at 14068 Huron River Drive South. The former residents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stain, and two children have moved into the former J. C. Richards residence on VanPatten Street. The VanPatten Street address was Mrs. Stain's childhood home, she being the former Sharon Richards.

Would you like to be a Sunday School teacher? If so, please contact Rev. Frank Leineke, pastor, (WH 1-3474) or Virgil Varner (697-9688) as soon as possible. The religious education (church school) program is being re-organized at both the Romulus and New Boston United Methodist Churches and there is a great need for additional teachers.

The Senior High Department at the Romulus Calvary Baptist Church, Ozga Road, is planning a Retreat for March 20 and 21. Those planning to attend are reminded to sign up in the Senior High Department. Ninth graders are welcome.

S/Sgt. Bill Hughes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Estill Hughes of Huron River Drive South, is home on special 30-day leave from Okinawa. He was granted the leave due to the illness of his sister, Miss Dorothy Hughes, who is a patient at Garden City Osteopathic and expects to undergo heart surgery Jan. 31.

S/Sgt. Hughes' wife and two children remain in Okinawa. Earlier Dorothy was to undergo surgery on January 17 but the operation was postponed by her surgeon.

Bride-elect Christine Madej, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Madej of Cogswell Road, will be honored at a bridal shower Sunday afternoon, Feb. 1, at the V. F. W. Hall on Huron River Drive West. Hostesses will be Mrs. Eugene Madej and Mrs. Robert Harrison.

New College Continues To Grow

As the new Wayne County Community College completed its second registration total enrollment increased to nearly 10,000 from the fall level of 8,100.

This represents a 25 per cent gain during a winter registration when many colleges are experiencing a drop in enrollment.

The college's Open-Door admission policy has drawn highly motivated students. WCCC admits anyone over 19, or under 19 but a high school graduate. "Many first semester students approached the college a little timidly", commented Acting President Murray Jackson.

"Some were high school drop outs while others had been out of school for several years. They were not altogether confident in their abilities, but they felt the need to continue their education and were more than willing to try. Over 65 percent of the first semester's students received a grade of 'C' or better and 17 percent got 'A's'."

"The growing confidence of students in themselves and in the college is illustrated in the heavier course loads of students registered for the current semester", Jackson added. "The average student now carries two courses of six credit hours rather than the 4.5 credit hour average for the fall."

Having no central campus Wayne County Community College holds classes from 6-10 p.m. in facilities rented from local school boards across the district which includes most of Wayne County.

There are a total of 27 Instructional Centers. Five of these offer daytime classes and their enrollment has risen from a slim 75 in the fall to a more substantial 350.

The geographic spread of WCCC centers makes college courses easily accessible to all residents, and enrollment is divided about half and half between metropolitan Detroit and the communities in the eastern and western parts of the county.

The largest center is currently J. F. Kennedy High School in Taylor with 1,000 students.

A low tuition rate of $9 per credit hour or $27 a course means college courses are economically possible for almost everyone, and WCCC students represent all economic, cultural, and occupational groups in the county.

Sumpter Township Police Sergeant Gerry Cox, and Patrolman Ralph Griffith arrested Miss Allen at her home Jan. 1. At her arraignment she pleaded not guilty to charges of forging checks and was released under a $1,500 bond.

Portrait Of Today's Alcoholic Brings Surprises

Want a surprise? The average alcoholic of today is in his middle 30s and has a good job, a good home and three children. The average woman alcoholic is also in her middle 30s, has a good home, three children — and is married to the man with a good job.

Only three out of every 100 alcoholics will be found wandering the gutters of Skid Row.

The average alcoholic is one of the next 13 men and women you'll see taking a drink at lunch in the Motor Bar, before dinner at the Chop House or after work at Joe's Bar and Grill.

He's 32 times more likely to live in an area like Birmingham, Roseville, Dearborn or Indian Village than in the gutters of the inner city.

Chances are two to one that he took his first drink in high school. The odds are 50-50 that he had one or two alcoholic parents.

Compared to the alcoholic of 30 years ago, he's better educated, makes more money, has more leisure time and is more likely to live in the suburbs — just like everyone else.

This portrait of today's alcoholic is painted by Phyllis E. Tuttle, executive director of the Greater Detroit Council on Alcoholism (GDCA), a Torch Drive service.

In connection with January being Alcoholism Information Month, Mrs. Tuttle points out that too many people still have the stereotyped Bowery Street view of alcoholics.

Instead, she stresses, except for his disease the alcoholic is just like other people. He is fairly normal when he's not drinking.

Mrs. Tuttle says the nation's six and a half million alcoholics — and the Detroit area's 125,000 — represent every age, race, creed, sex, social group and profession.

In support of this, the Alcoholism Outpatient Department at St. Joseph's Hospital in Mt. Clemens, another Torch Drive service, reports that among its patients have been lawyers, corporation vice presidents, presidents of small companies, housewives, clergy, doctors and two judges.

Two recent developments in alcoholism are noted by GDCA: (1) The alcoholic is getting younger; and (2) More women are being treated for alcoholism.

The age of the alcoholic getting treatment has dropped drastically over the decades. The average alcoholic used to be in his 50s; now he's in his 30s. One center for alcoholic men in Detroit reports the majority of its cases are now in the late 20s to mid 30s.

As for the proportion of women alcoholics, GDCA doesn't know whether there are more than there used to be or whether more are just coming in for treatment.

Although some studies indicate there are just as many women as men alcoholics, the ratio among persons receiving treatment usually runs three to four times more men than women.

For all the apparent normalcy of the alcoholic, however, alcoholism has ravaging effects.

The GDCA points out these statistics:

One-fourth of alcoholic deaths are violent — by fire, poisoning, suicide, accidents, falls.

One-third of the people who commit suicide are alcoholics.

One-third of all arrests are for public drunkenness.

One-tenth of the nation's drivers are alcoholics.

Closer to home, the city of Detroit reported 198 deaths due to alcoholism in 1968. Northville Psychiatric Hospital reports that 25 per cent of its admissions are alcoholics.

Last year 17 per cent of all cases referred to Wayne County Circuit Court were alcoholism-related offenses. And 18 per cent of the cases in the Wayne County child protection division had one or two alcoholic parents.

"This is a terrible price to pay," said Mrs. Tuttle, "and it's been going on for hundreds of years. Our one encouragement is that we are seeing people at a younger age. At least that means we can cure them younger and they'll have left more years of a healthy, nonalcoholic life."

Alcoholism Care Program Planned For PCHA Unit

Directors' OK Needed

WAYNE—A pilot alcoholism care program at Annapolis Hospital will be presented to the Board of Directors at its January meeting.

Discussed at this week's Operating Committee meeting, the program received initial favorable approval of PCHA directors present. The project now requires full approval of the board.

Presentation of the need and method of treating hospitalized alcoholics was made by John J. Freysinger, administrator of Annapolis, a unit hospital of PCHA in Wayne.

He called it a logical extension of comprehensive health care in the community, and said it was a service area that was one of the items considered by the Authority's Long Range Planning Committee.

Patrick J. Norton, vice chairman of PCHA, is chairman of the committee.

"Proper treatment of patients suffering from alcoholism requires careful co-ordination and management of all aspects of the disease," said Freysinger. To achieve this the Annapolis Hospital administrator said a medical social worker should be retained. He also said he believed full medical staff participation would be necessary, as well as an in-hospital re-education program for hospital personnel.

Freysinger also pointed out that hospital-based programs for the treatment of alcoholics were successfully underway in other community hospitals, but he said he felt that the Authority's program should be unique to the needs of the communities served by PCHA.

Since Wayne County is a pilot area for the state program in alcoholism, Freysinger, suggested that the PCHA program might ultimately receive support of state and local agencies dealing with the problem.

An initial budget of $20,000 was proposed which, according to the hospital administrator, could be offset by patient revenue, health insurance and grants-in-aid.

The Committee also heard and received with thanks a letter of commendation sent to Seaway Hospital by McLouth Steel for service to the community the past year. The letter said in part, "You and your staff at Seaway Hospital have earned our deepest gratitude for the excellent service and care you have shown us," and it was signed by William V. Murphy of McLouth.

A major item to be considered by the Directors at its forthcoming meeting will be a new wage, salary and fringe benefit package for hourly and salaried PCHA employees. It received initial approval for ratification by the Board of Directors.

At Cam Ranh Bay Airman Grabs 30-Pound Fish

BELLEVILLE—Air Force 1st Class William A. Betsinger Jr., went looking for small sea life along the beach at Cam Ranh Bay, Vietnam, and ended up wrestling a 30-pound fish.

The airman, an aircraft mechanic on temporary duty with Detachment 2, 834th Air Division, spotted the 36-inch fish, a black grouper, while wading near the boat marina.

"I saw the fish about 20 feet out on a sandbar, about half out of the water," A1C Betsinger recalled. "I walked toward him, and when I got near him he opened his mouth and I grabbed him beneath the gills.

"I pulled the fish about five feet toward shore, and he flipped and knocked me down. I grabbed him and pulled him another five feet before he flipped again. He couldn't get away because the water was too shallow."

A1C Betsinger managed to get the grouper to a dock piling on the beach, and tied it to the dock. He then hitchhiked to his barracks two miles away, and returned with fishing tackle and camera to claim his prize.

Rubella Vaccine Shots Set Feb. 16

ROMULUS—Permission slips for Rubella inoculations have been sent to the homes of Romulus parents with children in grades kindergarten through third, it was announced. The slips were sent on Jan. 26, for the second time.

Clinics planned for December were cancelled due to a shortage of vaccine. It is now available and injections will be given on Monday, Feb. 16.

Rubella, sometimes called German Measles, is a virus infection, frequently so mild in its effect as to be hardly noticeable, when a youngster is the one infected. However, when an expectant mother has the infection, the hazards to her unborn child are grave.

Rubella results in miscarriages; still births; early childhood deaths; defective hearts and other organs; cerebral palsy, mental retardation, blindness, deafness and other physical and mental handicaps.

It is reasoned that by having a widespread immunization program among children, the danger of exposure to pregnant women will be minimized.

Land Buy Gets OK

ROMULUS—Land located in the Romulus' Urban Renewal Area that was taken by the state for back taxes (1968-1969) is now available to the Township and will be purchased by the Township, it was reported.

Purchase of the land by the Township is subject to the approval of township citizens at the Annual Township Meeting.

George Wilhelm, urban renewal director, has been notified of the Board's intentions.

Romulus' Urban Renewal Program involves some 570 acres of land in the Wayne Beverly Roads area.

Initial phases of the UR program are currently under way.

Freezing Rains New Boston Area's Dimes March Set Cut Off Power

BELLEVILLE—Power failures caused by freezing rains blacked out several suburban areas Sunday night.

Detroit Edison emergency crews reported that the power failures were of short duration and where caused by icing on the wires and moisture in the lines and power stations.

Areas affected included Ann Arbor on the west, Riverview and Trenton and Woodhaven in the Downriver area. Frankenmuth on the north and St. Clair County in the Port Huron area, on the northeast.

Other areas affected were Belleville, Ecorse, Pontiac Township, Farmington Township, Madison Heights, Livonia, Ypsilanti, Farmington City, Lathrup, Southfield, Franklin, Ecorse, Shelby Township, Bloomfield Township, Troy, Oak Park, Waterford Township and Hazel Park.

More than 10,000 persons were kept in the dark for periods from 15 minutes to two hours, it was reported.

The University of Michigan Buildings, Ann Arbor, were blacked out for two hours. Students continued their studies by the lights of candles in dormitory rooms.

University Hospital used an auxiliary generator during the black out.

An Edison spokesman announced that most repairs were accomplished within 16 hours.

NEW BOSTON—The dates from Jan. 28 through Feb. 2, are dates that should be circled on calendars in every home.

This is the advice of Mrs. Joyce Lambly, 23145 Merriman Road, New Boston, mothers' march chairman for the March of Dimes fund-raising drive on birth defects in the New Boston area.

Workshop Announced

YPSILANTI—Dorothy Taubman, a New York piano teacher, will give a two-day piano workshop and master class at Eastern Michigan University Feb. 27 and 28.

Enrollment in the workshop entitles each participant to play for Mrs. Taubman in the adult master class or non-participating

Mrs. Lambly reports that her co-workers have been planning the march for weeks. Their efforts have involved hours of time in blocking out areas to cover, checking addresses of homeowners and apartment dwellers, preparing envelopes and taking care of the thousands of details that such projects entail.

"It has been gratifying to see how unselfishly these women have worked at coordinating a major fund-raising event," she commented. "All are acutely conscious of the great need served by the Mothers' March."

Contributions are channeled into a nationwide network of more than 100 March of Dimes Birth Defects Centers, where research, education, patient care and community services are bringing new hope to the twin aims of prevention and treatment of birth defects. There are four centers in Michigan.

Volunteers will urge their neighbors to give generously to the cause of a healthy birthright for all babies.

Campbell Is Builder

Groundbreaking Is Held For 'Advanced-Design Bakery'

Ground has been broken (Jan. 20, 1970) for a multi-million-dollar specialized baking plant-said to be the most modern in the country-for Rinna Brothers Bakery.

Located on a four-acre site with ample room for expansion, the new bakery will be on Enterprise Drive in suburban Allen Park adjacent to the I-94 expressway linking Detroit and Chicago.

The new facility is expected to be completed this spring, in time for the company to begin planning a celebration marking its 25th anniversary next year. The bakery is being built by the H.F. Campbell Co., a Detroit-based international construction firm that specializes in industrial and commercial structures. H.F. Campbell of Belleville is chairman of the firm's Board of Directors.

Deane Baker, president of the H.F. Campbell Co., said the building will have many new features including especially wide aisles and a reception area for the convenience of the thousands of visitors who are expected to tour the plant.

The building's 45,000 square feet of floor space will include, in addition to the bakery, areas for warehousing, loading, a garage and executive offices.

Anthony T. Rinna, president of Rinna Brothers Bakery, said the facility will permit a four-fold increase in production and will be a "showcase for modern baking methods using highly sophisticated machinery made only in Europe." He said new equipment will enable the bakery to produce bread and rolls uniform in quality but with the distinctive flavor imparted by traditional European methods.

He stated, "I believe our new bakery will be the only one in the nation-certainly in Michigan-with such advanced equipment."

Breadmaking machinery has been ordered from the W. Van Dijk Company in Rotterdam, Holland, and roll-making equipment from Werner and Pfeleiderer Company in Stuttgart, Germany.

Equipment will have distinctive colors, blue for bread-making lines, yellow for roll-making and green for bread sticks-makers to help explain the baking process to visitors.

The exterior of the plant, utilizing painted masonry blocks, enameled metal siding and red brick trim, will have an attractive contemporary appearance.

Rinna Brothers Bakery was founded in 1946 and operates around the clock in three plants, all in the southwestern section of Detroit.

The firm produces several varieties of rolls, non-white European bread and bread sticks for customers which include prominent restaurants, supermarkets and institutions throughout Michigan and in parts of Illinois, Wisconsin and Ohio. Rinna said several new and exotic products will be introduced when the new bakery is completed.

Officers of the firm, in addition to Anthony Rinna, are Henry J. Rinna, secretary-treasurer; Herman Rinna, Alfred Rinna and Clifford E. Miller, vice presidents.

The H.F. Campbell Company is one of five firms that comprise the Campbell Group. In addition to commercial and industrial construction the companies build multiple inner-city housing, develop industrial centers, manufacture building components and undertake field research on building methods and technology.

NEW CAMPBELL PROJECT-Drawing shows the new Rinna Brothers Bakery to be built in Allen Park alongside I-94 Expressway by the H.F. Campbell Co., Detroit-based international building firm. H. Fred Campbell of Belleville is company's Board Chairman.

Rouge Plant Tour Visitors Set Record

DEARBORN--The saying "records are made to be broken" held true again in 1969 as a record number of visitors toured the Ford Motor Company Rouge plant in Dearborn, Mich.

More than 219,642 tourists -- an increase of eight per cent over 1968 -- visited the unique, 1,200 acre Rough industrial area to inspect every phase of automobile manufacturing.

The 9,700 tourists during the month of December topped all previous totals for that month.

Visitors came to see the Ford operations last year from every state and all U.S. possessions, as well as from 108 foreign countries. Japan, Germany and France accounted for the largest numbers of foreign visitors. During the tour of steel operations, visitors see glowing ingots of steel being rolled into bars and sheets for fabrication. In the Dearborn Stamping Plant, they watch huge presses stamp out car roofs, fenders and side panels.

The final assembly tour dramatizes how through careful planning and split-second timing, parts and sub-assemblies for all body styles meet on the final assembly line at just the right moment to make each Cougar or Mustang as ordered.

Admission-free tours of the Rouge start every hour between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. Mondays through Fridays, except for holidays. Tours begin in the visitors' reception lobby in the Ford Central Office Building, Michigan Avenue and Southfield, Dearborn.

4-H Club Holds Meeting

BELLEVILLE--The TA-WAN-KA 4-H Club held their first meeting of the year on Jan. 15, at the home of Miss Debby Green, one of it's newer members.

Newly organized in October, 1969, TA-WAN-KA has already reached twelve in membership.

Miss Kathy Martin is president-elect for the first term of officers with Miss Diann Breen, vice-president; Miss Bambi Tenant, secretary; and Miss Donna Breen, treasurer.

Club Leader is Mrs. Lori Martin and our assistant leader is Mrs. Lynn Tenant. Project Leaders are Mrs. Linda Hammond, Mrs. Jean Syler, Mrs. Rickie Breen, and Mrs. Lillian Green.

There will be an Ice

Skating Outing on the evening of Thursday, Jan. 22, from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. The club members are having a combination Valentine Day party and regular February meeting, and are hoping that all the parents will help make this a success.

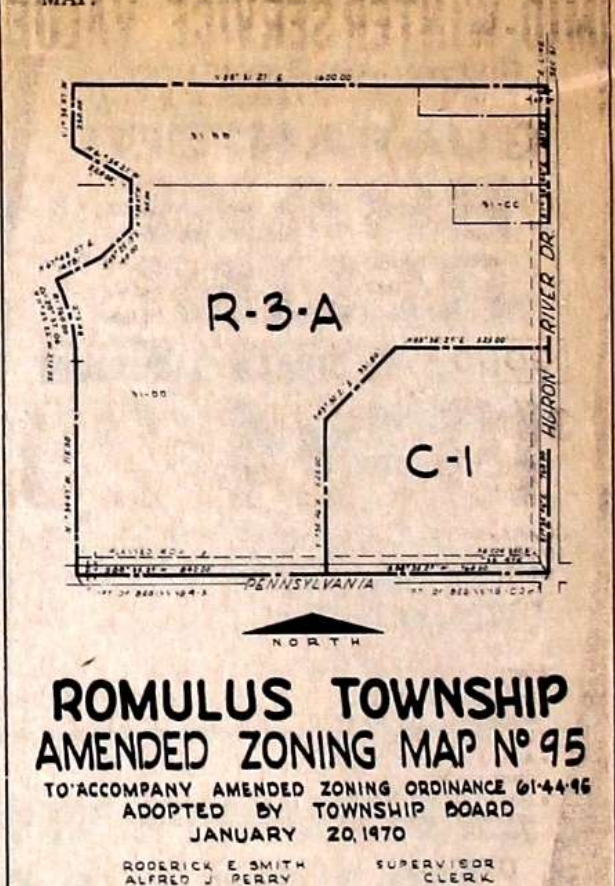

Up and coming events for Spring are being prepared for. Members have some very good ideas for costumes, floats and parades, and with the help of club leaders, members hope to make a very good appearance throughout the year.

The meeting was adjourned at 9 p.m. with refreshments served afterward.

McKee Guilty

DETROIT — Mrs. Mary McKee, Tax Consultant with offices at 4950 Textile Road, Ypsilanti, was found guilty in a Detroit Federal Court of preparing false income tax returns for others without their knowledge.

She was indicted in January, 1968 on twenty-eight counts of falsely preparing income tax returns for others.

The government alleged that Mrs. McKee, 53, mother of three, claimed fictitious expenses for various clients of hers. Testimony revealed that she prepared from 400 to 600 income tax returns every year as operator of the McKee Accounting and Tax Service. Some of the witnesses said that McKee demanded 50% of their income tax refund as her fee for preparing the tax return. John Grabetz, a service station operator from Carleton, Michigan said that McKee charged him $150 for returning his records to him.

The trial, which took place before Federal Judge Thomas P. Thornton, lasted six days and heard testimony from 49 witnesses.

The jury found her guilty on eighteen counts after deliberating for three days.

Each count on which she was convicted carries a maximum penalty of three years in jail and/or $5,000 fine. Judge Thornton delayed sentencing pending a report from the Probation Department.

Romulus Awaits Willow Run

Eagles Seek Cage Revenge

Twin Valley

Romulus will attempt to make the second time around a revengeful one when Willow

Run, the first to spoil coach Al Duva's basketball record this season, comes to town Friday night. Willow Run knocked off the Eagles, 63-61, in the Twin Valley Conference opener. Neither the Eagles nor their coach have forgotten it.

"We have the home court advantage," coach Duva points out. "And in most high school games that means a lot. They beat us by a basket and I feel we should be able to make up the difference on our court."

Romulus returns to league action after trouncing Oakland "A" Conference representative, Troy, 61-48, Saturday night. The Eagles found the range early with a 19-7 first quarter, coasting along on a 10 point lead most of the remainder of the game.

A solid zone defense plus sharpshooting by Nate Davis and Charles Johnican made the difference in what was the Eagles' fifth win against three losses.

In that opening quarter, Davis and Johnican each drilled in six points and Roy Szyndlar, chipped in five to start the ball rolling.

Romulus enjoyed a 33-24 halftime and a 50-34 third quarter advantage.

Johnican finished up with 18 points on eight baskets and two free throws to lead all Eagle scorers. Davis was one-point off the pace with six buckets and five charities. Also in double figures was Szyndlar, who had 11.

Romulus's Frank Nesbit again provided the key to the boards. He muscled his way to 17 rebounds to lead all cagers in that category. He also accounted for six points.

The game's individual scoring honors went to 6-1 senior Troy forward Joe Beckart who drilled in 13 field goals from outside the 3-2 Romulus zone. He also sank a free throw to wind up with 27 points.

Romulus will be busy on the courts this week. After the league showdown with Willow Run, the Eagles remain at home Saturday night, hosting nonleague rival, Wayne Memorial.

On Tuesday, the Eagles run up against Belleville, another non-conference foe.

IN POSITION—Huron's 6-7 pivotman Rick Wasilewski (41) appeared to be in the right place at the right time against Wayne last week as he found time to slip in 26 of his team's 69 points to lead the Chiefs to a nonleague victory over the Zebras.

Huron's '5' 'The Greatest'?

"They're the greatest," says Huron coach Dave Court when discussing his players. "They're definitely the best team I've ever coached."

And Court is making believers out of many skeptics lately.

With impressive victories over Huron Conference league rival, Tecumseh and nonleague rival Wayne Memorial the Huron coach has added his record to 10-3 over-all.

Tecumseh was an easy target for the Chiefs who raced away from a 14-6 first quarter to a 31-21 halftime margin and out of sight 52-36 at the three quarter mark before feasting on its fifth league win, 67-45.

The Chiefs are 5-3 on the season in the league, losing twice to Flat Rock and once to Grosse Ile. But the two losses to Flat Rock color the Chiefs out of the title race.

Center Rick Wasilewski duplicated his 26-point scoring performance against Tecumseh, scoring the identical figures earlier in the week in a 69-59 Huron triumph over Wayne Memorial last Tuesday.

It was Wasilewski's nine first period points that got Huron started in the tilt against Tecumseh.

Before he finished with his league rivals, Wasilewski had poured in 10 baskets and six free throws to take game scoring honors.

Huron guard Butch Suemnick also found the range early and hit on seven of his 22 attempts and picked up a free throw for 15 points. Suemnick and Wasilewski were the only Chief players to make it into double figures.

Despite an excellent night in the field, the Chiefs were cold at the free throw line. They managed to drop in 15 of 26 attempts.

In the Wayne game, Huron kept a safe margin throughout most of the battle after carving out a 17-10 first quarter lead. The Chiefs saw that lead dwindle to 33-30 at halftime but came back to a 54-45 advantage to close out the third frame.

Wayne couldn't stop Wasilewski who enjoyed a field day. He slipped in 13 baskets for 26 of their 69 points. Suemnick again was cast in a supporting role as he hit on six baskets and 14 free throws for 20 points.

Huron is on the road Friday night when the Chiefs meet up with Monroe Jefferson, a team which has won only one of its 11 games this season

Pickin' on Coaches

Chalk up another victory for education and loss to the coaching profession.

Education reached into the coaching ranks, last week, and snatched gregarious Belleville football coach Jim Richendollar and tagged him as the future principal of a soon-to-be-named junior high school in Belleville.

Some sophist will quickly say that coaching isn't losing a coach but gaining an educator who will spread athletic philosophy.

Maybe so, and maybe not...

But when football season rolls around next summer, the 29-year-old Richendollar will be at his desk at a junior high school and not with the Tigers.

"It's a challenge that I am eager to accept," says Richendollar of his future position. "I want this opportunity to work with the kids."

"And it's a difficult decision for me to leave coaching. I love the profession and I am going to miss it and the men with whom I have been associated over the past few years," he said.

An All-American tackle for three seasons (1960-61-62) for Hillsdale, where he graduated in 1962 with a bachelor of arts in physical education, Richendollar earned his masters in administration from the University of Michigan.

Jim became assistant grid coach at Belleville in 1963, a post he held for three years until he was elevated to the head coaching job in 1967.

Inheriting an ailing football squad from his predecessor, Richendollar turned the tide and for three seasons never had a losing year with his teams.

Liked by players and parents, the personable coach gained the confidence of the community — which supported the Tigers, filling the stands, win or lose.

But, in his three years, Richendollar was unable to build a serious title contender, finishing with a 4-3-2 year in 1967 as his best record.

He did, however, prove to his teams "that there is no substitute for hard work".

Though noted for his football teams, coach Richendollar also inaugurated the wrestling program at Belleville. He surrendered the mat coaching job to Tom Fritz only this season to devote all of his time to coaching football.

Married to Sharon, the Richendollars have three children, Laura, 6, Melvin, 5, and Betty, 2.

Though we're happy to see Jim get ahead, we wish that those darn boards of education would keep their cotton-pickin' hands off our good coaches.

From the Ski Runs

Speaking of coaches, Cherry Hill's head swim coach, Jerry Pawloski, and his wife, Ilene, went skiing over the weekend at Schuss Mountain. And, though I wasn't surprised when we called late Sunday night to hear that "Jerry is ill and in bed," I was surprised to hear the ailment wasn't broken bones.

Romulus To Host District Wrestling Tournament

Romulus has been designated as the host school for the 1970 Class A District Wrestling Tournament which will be conducted on Sat., Feb. 21.

Among teams to compete, including the host, are Garden City East, West, Wayne Memorial, Westland John Glenn, Annapolis, Crestwood and Southgate.

Wrestlers who finish first and second at the district meets will advance to the regionals.

It is the first time that Romulus has been given the honor to host a district wrestling tournament.

Coach Jim Stallings' Eagles have soared back from three straight losses to win four consecutive dual meets. The Eagles' latest victim was Twin Valley Conference adversary, Willow Run.

Romulus, with all of its grapplers either winning on a pin or shutout, overwhelmed the Flyers 42-8.

Last Thursday, Romulus was forced to settle for a tie with nonleague rival, Saline. Both teams would up with 25 points.

Going into the final weight, Romulus had a 23-18 edge over Saline's grapplers. But Saline heavyweight Gary Ernst worked Tim Sypula for a five point victory, taking 2:27 to pin his rival.

Romulus' Russ Reaume continued his outstanding performance on the mats as he decisioned Don Crigmore, 9-2, in the 185-pound class for his 22nd victory in 23 trips.

Romulus, with Charles

Decker (98), James Hemmingway (107) and Greg Stephens (123) won three of the first four matches but still trailed, 10-9.

The draw was the first on coach Stallings' record since (Continued on 2nd Sports)

Churchill Is Victim

Belleville Snaps Streak

There's something about Livonia Churchill that brings the winning spirit out of Belleville cagers. Belleville came up with a 61-52 nonleague basketball win over the Livonia quintet last Tuesday for their second triumph of the current campaign.

Belleville's first victory? Right - it was against Churchill at the Glenn

GORHAM.
At Charity Strip

Holiday Tournament last month

But coach Allen Gates Tigers had to sweat it out to the end. Though they had a 15-13 lead at the end of the first quarter and were up by as much as 11 points in the first half, Churchill kept on struggling until the final minute.

Belleville hung on to its slimlead at intermission 31-30 but Churchill surprised its guest and moved to the front of a 45-43 third quarter.

A change of defensive strategy with Belleville moving to a trap zone paid off in the last quarter. Also helping the Tiger cause were Garrade Pettus' "hot hands."

Pettus had one of his best scoring nights as he dropped in 23 points to lead all players. Also in Tiger double figures were Jim Singleton, who had 13, while Rick Mussehl and Tony Ogletree each had 10.

Leading the opposition was Keith Armstrong who collected 18 points for his night's sweat. Teammates, Jerry Oljace and Ray Young chalked up 12 and 11 points, respectively.

Chet's Double Win Just Isn't Enough

Belleville tankers make turn in the Suburban Six Conference Thursday heading into the second round of competition as guests of Redford Union.

Coach Bill Brandell's team completed its first round schedule, falling to Plymouth 65-40 last week.

Chet Meyer continued to provide the Tigers with first place power. He was a double winner, earning two of the three first places carded by the team.

Meyer swam a 1:56 even for the 200 yard freestyle and came back for a first in the 100 yard freestyle as he touched in at 52.0.

Belleville diver Barry Susterka continued to show good form on the boards. Susterka accumulated a total of 197.6 points to become the top performer in the event.

Though Huron's Rick Wasilewski came up with a pair of 26 point performances last week he failed to close the gap on the Associated Newspapers' scoring leader, Garden City West's Rick Drewitz. Drewitz drilled in 42 points for a career high to set a new West Senior High scoring record.

WAITING GAME—With outstretched hands, Huron's Joe Rickert (33) and Wayne's trio of Merrill Collins (34), Chuck Slamer (54) and Richard Fidh (20) wait to see how the ball bounces. It bounced right for Huron who turned back the Wayne quintet in a nonleague affair.

Sports Facilities Excellent at HCMA

Winter sports facilities are excellent at the four major parks of the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority. Metropolitan Beach near Mt. Clemens reports ice is from 8 to 9 inches thick on the boat basins and along Lake St. Clair. Skating is excellent at the two rinks in front of the Food Bar and hockey is provided on the rink on the North Marine Basin. Food service hours are 10 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. daily. Ice Skating is provided on Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings. Park hours are 8 a.m. to dusk, except week-ends. For additional information phone 963-3022 (DETROIT) or 463-4581 (MT. CLEMENS). Lower Huron Metropolitan Park near Belleville provides moderate hills for sledding and three natural ponds which provide ice skating and hockey facilities. These are lighted 10 p.m. No food service is available. The phone is 697-9181.

THE SHORTEST ROUTE—Belleville's Garrade Pettus (14) tries the short cut to Plymouth's basket but Steve Straley stands as a ready detour. Pettus wound up with 12 points in a losing 86-64 Tiger performance. Belleville will attempt to break its five-game Suburban Six losing streak Friday night when Redford Union is in town. The Tigers lost to R.U. the first time around in overtime.

Belleville '5' Has New Hope

Plymouth, backed by the sharpshooting performance of captain Pat Cunningham quickly dispelled any hopes that Belleville would successfully be cast in the role of "spoilers" Friday night in their first Suburban Six Conference basketball encounter. Cunningham drilled in 10 of his 26 points in the first quarter, added 12 more in the second to give the Rooks a commanding 25-10 first and 53-31 second quarter lead en route to a decisive 86-64 victory. The victory enabled coach Dick Bearup and his Plymouth quintet to remain in the conference title race. It gave them a firm hold on second place, one game off the pace set by defending champs, Bentley. The two-Plymouth and Bentley - will clash Friday night at Plymouth to settle their difference. Bentley is the only team to mark the Rock League record. Meanwhile Belleville which is seeking its first league triumph in five tries will receive additional help when 6-6 forward center Joe Clayborn becomes eligible to play. Clayborn is a transfer student from Willow Run High and was forced to sit out the first stage of the season, awaiting eligibility. The first to take a look at the new Tiger cage model will be Redford Union, a team that downed the Tigers 61-56 in an overtime battle. The two play Friday night at Belleville. Belleville couldn't shake its doldrums last Friday, however, playing "catch-up" most the night and not mustering enough scoring power to erase that 15-point opening quarter deficit. Plymouth cooled after shooting 75 percent for the first half and was even held scoreless for a five period span early in the third quarter. Though Belleville outscored its visitor 17-10 in that quarter, the damage was already done. The Rocks came back to a 23-16 finale. Balance scoring, provided by Cunningham, Casey Jones, Howard Schryer, and Charlie Wolfe kept the Tigers defense moving. Plymouth was also hot at the free throw line where it sank 16 of 20 attempts. Aside from Cunningham's 26 points, also in double figures were Jones (17); Schryer (14) and Wolfe (11). Belleville received 12 points each from Jim Singleton and Garrade Pettus. The Tigers made 20 of their points at the free throw line where they also missed 15.

Hart Favors Council To Protect Consumers

WASHINGTON—"Product warranties today look more like guaranteed employment for the lawyers who draft them than guaranteed products for consumers," Senator Philip A. Hart (D-Mich.) said today.

Appearing at hearings on the Consumer Products Guaranty Act (S. 3074), Hart supported the bill and suggested his proposed Independent Consumer Council as a logical mediator for complaints about unfulfilled warranty promises.

Under the guaranty bill a warranty must spell out the promises, what the consumer must do to get the benefits and how to complain if things go wrong. Also, guarantors must use an impartial body for informal dispute settlement. Hart's plan makes such mediation a responsibility of community units of the Council.

Hart said, "Stories of consumers who have been bounced from retailer, to district office, to regional office, to home office and back to the regional office might be called the Saga of Modern Consumers."

"Typically today more time is spent in 'Who Killed John' accusations than in meaningful steps to solve consumers' problems."

"Much of this occurs, I suspect, because the consumer surely doesn't understand the protection promised in the warranty and the guarantor probably doesn't understand it. Too many warranties today look more like guaranteed employment for the lawyers who draft them than guaranteed products for the consumers."

More than 70 seniors from 56 Detroit public and parochial high schools were honored as outstanding young citizens by civic dignitaries, community business leaders and school officials recently. The recipients of the 1970 Detroit Police Department Youth Awards were guests of honor at the banquet in Cobo Hall, sponsored by Chrysler Corporation.

The award winning youths were selected by their fellow students, faculty members and their school administrators for their citizenship, character, loyalty to their school and community, leadership initiative, voluntary participation in school and community activities, reliability of attendance and dependability, and for their scholarship achievements.

This is the 14th year of the Youth Awards Program. It has been jointly sponsored by the Detroit Police Department and Chrysler Corporation since 1957. The award winners, their parents and high school principals were honored guests at this year's annual banquet.

Patrick V. Murphy, Detroit Police Commissioner, presided over the banquet and introduced the speakers.

The Honorable Roman S. Gribbs, Mayor of the City of Detroit, provided congratulations to the youths from the City of Detroit while those from the schools were given by Dr. Norman S. Drachler, superintendent of Detroit Public Schools; Dr. Michael J. Stelmachowicz, superintendent of Lutheran High School Association of Greater Detroit; and the Reverend John B. Zwiers, superintendent of Schools -

Archdiocese of Detroit.

Among the students honored were two area students. Marise A. Papa of 964 Sunningdale, Inkster is a Student at Rosary High School.

Deborah E. Sedore of 15430 Oak Drive, Livonia is a student at Redford High School in Detroit.

Dr. William R. Keast, president of Wayne State

University addressed the youths and extended his congratulations to the awardees. Each winner was presented with a Youth Award Certificate and a bronze nameplate which will be affixed to their school's Youth Award Plaque along with plaques showing winners in former years.

Music for the banquet was provided by the Detroit Police Department Orchestra.

sweets to support their local Camp Fire organization.

Money from the sale goes toward maintaining Camp Fire Girls' Camp Wathana, near Holly, Michigan, to provide campships for girls who would otherwise not enjoy a camping experience and to sustain other Camp Fire activities in the community.

The 1969 Candy Sale broke all records for the Detroit Area Council and, according to this year's chairman, Mrs. Dorothy Deschryver, 1970 will be even bigger, providing even more money to expand the Camp Fire program for area Camp Fire Girls.

REPAIR • REMODEL • REDECORATE

Bathroom Addition, Remodeling Demands Professional Advice

Can your home use an extra bathroom?

Foolish question, perhaps, since the comfort and property value of most homes would increase dramatically with modernized bathrooms. Family life surely would get easier.

Okay, you've decided that another bathroom does make remodeling sense. What's the proper next step?

Your shrewdest move would be to call in a professional-a plumbing contractor. After a short consultation, he will tell you whether you have the available space for what you're planning and most important how much it will cost.

The plumbing contractor, who sells bath and kitchen fixtures and related products while offering traditional plumbing services as well, might even suggest how you can install new fixtures without a major relocation of the in-the-wall pipes and drains.

He will have color, layout, and model suggestions to offer.

Specifically, the plumbing contractor can help you answer key questions such as:

How can you make your bathroom as livable and modern as the rest of your home?

How can you add an additional bath most economically?

Where can you tuck a powder room? Under the stairs? In an unused closet?

What building code requirements must you meet? Remember, the plumbing contractor is thoroughly familiar with your local code.

Can your remodeling be completed, say, in time for the holidays? Factors will include availability of labor, supplies, and the fixture model you select.

Keep in mind that some plumbing contractors also are building contractors. That is, they will assume total responsibility for a renovation and hire the carpenters, masons, electricians, and other workmen.

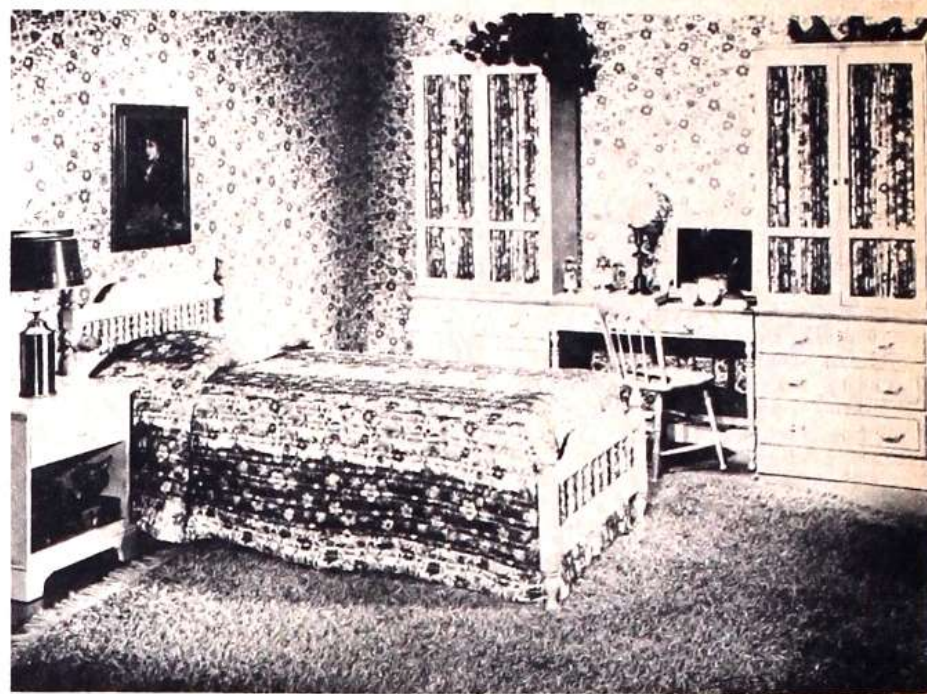

Remember too that remodeling can boost the value of your home, possibly as much as the renovation. More important is the pleasure of finally ridding yourself of that tired old-fashioned tub, toilet, and sink.

And don't try to do it yourself. Chances are you will save time and money by using a professional "who does it right the first time."

Plumbing contractors are listed in the yellow pages or you might ask an American-Standard distributor for recommendations.

By the way, a complete bathroom planning guide is available by sending $1 to the Consumer Services Department, American-Standard, 40 West 40th Street, New York, N. Y. 10018.

Happy bathing in the 70's.

FLORAL PATTERN-ON-PATTERN lends the freshness of a spring morn to this distinctive bedroom setting. Designed with a young lady in mind, this room features white furnishings from the Kling Colonial collection by Baumritter Corp. Color scheme of this sunny setting is yellow-green and orange. Painted yellow floor picks up the same shade as in the floral print of wall covering, bed spread and shutter material inside case pieces. This bedroom was created by Nicholas Yoxall for the new "American at Home — 1970" collection of room settings introduced at the January Market at the American Furniture Mart.

Bathroom Planning Needs Atmosphere

Modernizing the family castle? Then turn the bathroom from a dungeon cell into a royal suite.

Tomorrow-oriented builders and plumbing contractors know all about planning the modern home with gem-toned, regal bathroom fixtures.

Still, as American-Standard, a pioneer in the fixture field, points out: You're the only one who knows what your family needs and wants.

Is it luxury? Then indulge in the new Spectra 70 bathing center that integrates elegance, convenience and safety.

Pamper yourself with the beauty of its symmetry...its slip-resistant bottom for showering security.

For maintenance-free living, choose a no-drip, washerless faucet for your lavatory, a Vent-Away Self-ventilating toilet that vacuums off odors and vitreous china or enameled cast-iron fixtures that are virtually self-cleaning and everlasting.

For guests, children or shower-only husbands, plan for extra bathrooms or a powder room, if not off the bedroom, then near the kitchen, in the garage or basement or off the family room.

As the last-word master planner, you'll be adding value to your home, prestige among your neighbors and self-esteem for your family. You'll look back with pride in years to come if you look ahead today.

Fireplaces Warm A Home

Fireplaces used to warm the hearth. Now they warm the heart.

In a recent survey of home features with proven sales appeal, fireplaces scored as one of the hottest items in apartments as well as single-family homes.

Not surprisingly, a fireplace's prime attraction today is not its heating capacity. Survey respondents readily admitted that they consider a modern-day hearth a status symbol.

They also feel a fireplace creates a natural "conversation center" and a distinctive focal point for room decor.

The decorating impact and charm of a fireplace depend to large degree on the mantel.

What makes it possible for an increasing number of apartments (where tenant appeal must be measured against the cost feasibility of luxury features) to offer fireplaces, is the availability of elegant wood mantels in stock sizes and a variety of styles.

Mantels of ponderosa pine, for instance, can be had in practically any decor: Colonial, Federal, Georgian, Provincial or traditional—each faithfully duplicating the fine design details of the period—and in a number of handsome contemporary styles.

The mantels are available at local lumber dealers, ready for assembly and installation, and can be painted or stained to complement the room's color scheme.

Industry Film Ratings Clarified For Audiences

The motion picture industry's voluntary film-rating system has in one year demonstrated "a gratifying success," and is being further strengthened with clarifying and improving amendments.

This announcement, based on a national scientifically sampled impartial survey and on intensive re-evaluation by theater owners, was made today, in behalf of the three organizations sponsoring the system: Eugene Picker, president, National Association of Theatre Owners; Munio Podhorzer, member, Governing Board, International Film Importers and Distributors of America; and Jack Valenti, president, Motion Picture Association of America.

Their joint statement said, "When the system went into effect on November 1, 1968, we said we would keep it constantly under review and would make a re-examination at the end of a year's trial period.

"We said we would not hesitate to make changes if they would improve the program. We have now made such revisions and we have acted in the light of facts developed in a national public survey and a nation-wide exhibitor survey.

"The essence of the system remains unchanged. The purpose is to rate films for children, to furnish guides to parents to decide on the movie-going of their children. The system does not rate for adults, nor does it pass on the quality or artistry of a film.

"There are two principal revisions. First: The M rating is changed to GP. The rating GP means all ages admitted, parental guidance suggested.

"This was done because the M category was found to be the least understood by the public in a nation-wide survey of 2600 people (2000 over 18 years and 600 from ages 12 to 17) conducted for MPAA by Opinion Research Corporation of Princeton, New Jersey.

The survey reported that fewer than one in 13 persons had accurate knowledge of the specific admissions policy for M films. Public confusion and misunderstanding over the word "mature" tended to result.

The GP rating seeks to bridge the knowledge gap by making it unmistakable that the theater will admit persons of all ages, but parents may still choose to obtain more information on the movie to guide the attendance of their younger children.

"Second: The age limit for the R category is raised from 16 to 17. This obviously also necessitated designating the same age for the X category.

"Again, the purpose is to strengthen the rating program.

"The movie ratings under the program now read:

G—All Ages Admitted. General Audiences.

GP—All Ages Admitted. Parental Guidance Suggested.

R—Restricted. Under 17 requires Accompanying Parent or Adult Guardian.

X—No One Under 17 Admitted.

"The Code and Rating Administration will immediately start using the revised ratings and the entire program will become effective on a nation-wide scale on March 1. As in the past, the ratings will be carried in advertisements and will be posted at all participating theaters.

"A survey conducted by Young NATO, a group of younger executives within the National Association of Theatre Owners, reported, on the basis of returns from 3,164 theaters throughout the country, that 89% "always" or "usually" use the rating symbols in their advertising.

"There can be no doubt that the program is a gratifying success when it attracts such support on the part of theaters," said the three industry representatives in the joint statement.

"The theater stands and speaks for the industry in the local community and it speaks in a reassuring voice in behalf of the rating system."

"The public's attitude toward the ratings was reported in the Opinion Research Corporation Survey.

"Fifty-eight percent of the movie-going public said the program was "very useful" to "fairly useful" as a guide for deciding what movies children should see. The favorable attitude rose to 70% among movie-going teenagers age 12 to 17, who are themselves most directly affected by the ratings.

It is on this expanded knowledge that we shall seek with all energy to develop the widest possible public and industry support for the ratings."

'Zorba' Rates With Fisher's Best

By HOWARD ALLEN
Amusement Critic

"Life is" they sing in the bouzouki circle. Life is many things, but to Zorba, of whom the words "free soul" might have been coined, Life to Zorba, in the musical adaption of "Zorba the Greek," now at the Fisher, is life itself.

"Zorba" is a highly unified play, with set, score and script all blending in perfect harmony. But it exists to bare the soul of the title character and Zorba's character isn't all that complicated. He loves life and takes it as it is, free from all entanglements.

Life does deal him some heavy blows. His current interest, an elderly French woman, dies and has scarcely drawn her last breath before the vultures descend to strip her home bare. He accompanies a young companion to Crete to aid him in opening a mine only to see rotten timbers dash that hope. Finally, the narrow jealousies of the Cretans murder a young widow in whom the companion has been interested.

All this Zorba survives—because he is Zorba and because his philosophy allows him to emerge with few bruises. "Zorba," short on song hits, is one long well-dressed, well-danced bouzouki revelry; one lacks the inclination to poke the bits apart and see what makes the sun bleached stone set tick.

John Raitt and Barbara Baxley are by no means as effective as Herschel Bernardi and Maria Karnilova, but "Zorba" is still one of the Fisher's most polished offerings of the year.

Tom Stoppard's brilliantly conceived "Rosencrantz and Guildenstern Are Dead," has opened the University of Michigan Professional Theatre Program's play of the month at Hill Auditorium, Ann Arbor.

Arbor. It is an oddly conceived work, set in and around the action of "Hamlet," but following the two courtiers, rather than Hamlet.

Shakespeare hinted that the two courtiers were insensitive and unaware; this is Stoppard's theme. Rosencrantz and Guildenstern drift through the action like it was a million miles away, never glimpsing the dark deeds plotted in Elsinore.

It was Shakespeare's jest that the pair, supposedly taking Hamlet to his death, were really going toward their own. It is Stoppard's that they never really knew the difference, despite the players laying bare their future just as they revealed Claudius' guilt to him.

The effect is presented by isolating Rosencrantz and Guildenstern physically as well as emotionally. They enter Elsinore. The court descends on them and plays out the scene Shakespeare wrote. Then what? They are abandoned. They aren't even shown to a room or given a bite to eat.

There must have been some life for them off-stage but Stoppard practically puts them in a vacuum. Perhaps he considers it essential not to clutter up his witty dialogue with the trivialities of life, although the lack of focus may shake the audience a bit.

The cast, as with "Zorba," is not the equal of Broadway's. John Church fares well as Rosencrantz but Clebert Ford plays Guildenstern practically as an angry young man, which he isn't. Robert Burr is effective as the player.

Walt Disney's principal bequest to the world was his imagination—and this imagination was much in evidence at the first of hopefully what may be a yearly spectacular, "Disney on Parade," at Olympia.

"Parade" was a little bit of a lot of things. There were several circus acts, garbed in the color of a Dumbo circus, the spectacle of Mickey Mouse on a motorcycle and Peter Pan on a flexible pole.

There was much of the pageantry of an ice show; some of the organized choreography of a Broadway musical.

Mostly there was color and more color, a rich feast of visual treats as a largely anonymous cast donned gay costumes as Donald Duck, Mickey Mouse, The Three Little Pigs, Goofy, Alice in Wonderland, Cinderella and many others.

The show is still a bit aimless and slightly misdirected but evolution will follow and "Disney on Parade" will become a most eagerly awaited visitor by both child and adult.

The funniest bit was the traditional clown car, driven here by Goofy. The most impressive scene was a massive tea party from "Alice," while a lush ball from "Cinderella" and the "Dumbo" circus parade were most handsome.

Only Disney could have done it.

IRISH DRAMA FOR ADULTS

The school of Dramatic Art at the University of Windsor faces a hectic schedule between now and April.

Opening Feb. 13, is the University Players production of The Hostage, an Irish play with song and dance, written by the late Brendan Behan, outspoken I.R.A. poet, author and playwright. This seamy but sensitive play is unsuitable for children. Behan's un-ruly language didn't lose its force in his writing. He has created a very actable group of characters in a provocative drama.

His special fields of interest are American Art and Worthington Whittredge. He received his Ph. D. in Art History at Ohio State University and was later awarded the Alexander Freeman Fund Award for Research by Wayne State University.

24 KARAT COMEDY

Billy Webb, comedian, master of ceremonies and impressionist, returned to the 24 Karat Club, 16890 Telegraph, for two weeks starting Monday, Jan. 26.

Webb captured the fancy of 24 Karat Club patrons last August during a one-week debut with his unique personality impressions and clean, refreshing humor. His ability to do authentic singing and talking voices of well-known personalities won him an excellent following.

The popular Lennie Schick Quartet provides music for the acts and for dancing. Stage shows are at 8:30, 10 p.m. and 12:30 a.m. on Saturday nights and at 9:30 and 11:30 p.m. Monday through Friday. Reservations are recommended. Call 538-4455.

The Welsh island of Caldy has been run by Monks since the sixth century.

STAR-Mikel Lambert in the title role of the Meadow Brook Theatre's current production "Hedda Gabler" now playing through February 1 at Oakland University. Opens at the Detroit Institute of Arts February 4 through February 8.

Sports Car Buffs Hear Speed Champ

DEARBORN--Betty Skelton Frankman, internationally famous aviation and automotive record maker and breaker, is the next speaker at the Henry Ford Museum's Sports Cars in Review next Friday, January 30. She will present her story entitled "Challenge", in the Museum Theatre at 8:30 p.m.

Mrs. Frankman held the world land speed record for women on four different occasions and was the first woman in the world to be officially clocked at over 300 miles per hour. The petite redhead has driven for records on the sands of Daytona Beach, the Salt Flats of Utah and over the Andes Mountains in South America. Her most recent record run was made at a top speed of 315 mph on the Bonneville Salt Flats in the "Green Monster Cyclops", a jet car owned by Art Arfons.

An International Film Festival award-winning movie, created and produced by Mrs. Frankman and her husband, Donald, a motion picture director, will accompany the lecture. Art Arfons' world land speed record run is the subject of the film also entitled, "Challenge."

Mrs. Frankman was the Feminine International Aerobatic Champion for three consecutive years and has established numerous aviation records since becoming the first American to fly solo at the age of twelve.

She was the first woman to undergo the extensive physical and psychological tests given the original seven astronauts. In 1959 she was tested at the Aero Space Medicine School, the U.S. Naval Acceleration Laboratory and other NASA installations. These space orientation activities were featured in a Look cover story in 1960.

The 18th annual Sports Cars in Review this year features the evolution of the American sports car in contrast to the European influence. There is no additional charge for the show, the lectures or the daily showing of movies of the Indianapolis 500 classic. For this event, the Museum is open from 9 to 5 Monday through Thursday and from 9 to 9 Friday, Saturday and Sunday through February 8, when the Review ends.

WOODSIDE SQUARE TOWNHOUSES

FOR AS LITTLE AS $87 PER MONTH*

The Woodside Square Townhouses are built for those who want better housing at less cost. Your monthly payment on your one, two or three bedroom townhouse includes everything: principal, interest, taxes and insurance, as well as heat, water and gas, but not electricity. And life at Woodside Square is completely maintenance free.

*Your monthly payment could be this low because under a special government program (FHA Section 236) your interest rate could be as low as 1%, depending on your family income.

Take I-94 to the Wayne Road exit and go north on Wayne Road to just past Ecorse Road. The sales office is open from Noon to 6 PM (closed on Wednesdays). Or call 721-7060.
